(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

With Anderson, Bloomington, Cambridge City, Columbus, Connersville, Crawfordsville, Elkhart, Evansville, Fairmont, Gary, Hartford City, Huntington, Indianapolis, Lafayette, La Porte, Lebanon, Logansport, Marion, Martinsville, Muncie, Newcastle, Plymouth, Richmond and Terre Haute already having, or planning to build, airports, it looks like Greencastle should get busy and make a place for the boys to light. Greencastle leads in most everything, including amateur theatricals, and there is no reason why this community should not get busy and build an airport.

NEWS ITEM:—Charley Lloyd and his sister, Miss Cella, who have been spending the summer in Florida, were through Greencastle this weekend on their way to Northern Michigan, where they will spend the winter. In speaking of their summer in Florida they said they were glad to be on their way to Michigan where they will conduct a soft drink parlor during the winter months. They will return to Florida early next summer to resume their Hot Chili parlor operations. Both are well and popularly known here. Charley Lloyd gained his local reputation as a fictitious newspaper character, at the hands of every new reporter who ever broke into the game in this city. His sister, Miss Cella, although not so well known, is reasonably so.

To Cure a cold:—I have been asked to give the following treatment to the public, as one which is thoroughly tested and guaranteed to be successful in combating the winter cold. Take a half pint of whiskey—but why go further. After having taken a half pint of whiskey you will not care whether you have a cold or not.

FOR RENT:—Some slightly used but serviceable sound summer clothing.

THE LEANING TOWER

OF ELECTRIC LIGHT
GREENCASTLE, Indiana, Dec. 8.—An architectural novelty, comparable to the Leaning Tower of Pisa, has been discovered in Greencastle by a student in ancient architecture. The novelty is the Leaning Light Post of Wabash Valley, which is located on the east side of Jackson street, between Washington and Walnut streets. The light post, standing at an angle of several degrees, gives one the impression that it is about to topple over, but as yet, it has not done so. The post is easily distinguished as it has a light on the top and is painted green.

Well, Well, Well, here it is right at Christmas time. In fact only 17 more days until Christmas and I haven't bought a single present. Naughty me. But that should not deter you from buying your Christmas presents early and buying them in Greencastle, too. For I HAVE looked a bit and the local merchants have a wonderful display of novelties and substantial Christmas gifts.

KIWANIS TO SEEK RURAL MEMBERS

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The constitution of Kiwanis International was amended today to permit the organization of clubs in small communities. Heretofore the organization had been handicapped by restrictions placed upon membership.

The action was taken at the annual council of Kiwanis international meeting here with 250 officials and district governors-elect.

The constitutional amendment does not abridge the rule limiting clubs to two members from any one profession, officials said.

The chief activities of the clubs in 1929, decided at the present conference, will be underprivileged child assistance, instruction in citizenship, development of business standards, urban-rural relations work, vocational guidance for students and membership increase.

BOVINE INFECTION

Most tuberculosis is of a human origin but the germs from cattle infected with the disease also cause tuberculosis in humans. It is estimated that 6-10% of all kinds of T. B. is due to bovine infection. It is caused not only by the milk from tuberculosis cows but from butter and cheese made from such milk. Much has been done toward tuberculosis testing of cattle and the pasteurization of milk.

Surgical Needle Is Used to Withdraw Pleural Matter From Lungs — May Further Tax Heart

By HARRY R. FLORY
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Although King George had a good sleep during the night his temperature was still above normal today owing to the lung infection, according to a medical bulletin posted at Buckingham Palace at 11:30 o'clock.

"The King had some hours of sleep. His temperature is still raised on account of the lung condition. His general condition is the same."

It was signed by the court physicians, Lord Dawson of Penn and Sir Stanley Hewitt.

Although the X-Ray photographs taken late yesterday were said to show a favorable condition, there was some increase in anxiety over the fact that Sir Stanley spent the entire night at the palace.

Some alarm was caused by reports that the physicians attending the King and discussed the advisability of an operation but had decided against it because it was believed he lacked sufficient vitality to permit such a step.

It is believed ordinary "active" treatment will be continued instead. The King spent a restless day yesterday. His resistance, according to the physicians, was caused by the use of a surgical needle to withdraw pleural matter from the infection in his chest.

The physicians took X-rays of the infected parts after the needle exploration and found that the pleural effusion was small.

The use of the needle for the first time, it was pointed out by palace officials, was not a sign that the King's condition had become worse.

It was just a natural part of the physicians efforts to withdraw pleural matter, according to the officials. Novocaine was used to deaden the nerves on the right side of his majesty's chest when the needle was used.

Although the King is still believed to be maintaining his strength, it is feared the use of the needle will further tax his heart.

The queen and others of the royal family are in constant touch with the sick-room. The Prince of Wales is expected to leave Port Said, Egypt, for Brindisi, Italy, aboard the cruiser Enterprise tonight. He is now at Cairo. The Duke of Gloucester left Cape Town, South Africa, yesterday, for England aboard the steamer Balmoral Castle.

Officers Get Tip On Robbery And Lie In Waiting For Bandits—Store Wrecked By Bullets

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 8.—(INS)—Two bandits were shot and killed and two officers were wounded and one bandit was killed, in a pitched battle between a hold-up gang and policemen at the F. W. Hohlt Dry Goods Store at 1239 West Kentucky Avenue here today.

Thirteen detectives and patrolmen under the personal leadership of Chief of Police Claude Worley ambushed three robbers who were after $6,000 which Merchant Hohlt had on hand in his store this morning to cash the pay checks of the employees of the Marmon Motor Company's plant, which is located across the street from the store.

The dead bandits were: OTTO PRICE 25, an ex-convict, CARL "SLIM" KITHRELL, 23. The policemen wounded, were: Police Lieutenant Roy Pope, shot in the hand, Detective Herbert Fletcher, also shot in the hand.

The other members of the bandit gang were captured by the police. The prisoner gave his name as Lloyd Amos, 24.

Officials of the Marmon Motor Car Company furnished the police with the tip that led to the ambush of the bandits. The Marmon officials had noted members of the gang loitering around the plant yesterday and feared that an attempt might be made today to seize the Marmon payroll.

Chief Worley mobilized twelve officers early this morning and led them to the Hohlt Dry Goods Store, Six of the officers under the leadership of Lieutenant Pope hid in the store while Chief Worley and six other officers took their post in a fast police emergency car which they parked out of sight inside of the Marmon plant.

Lieutenant Pope and Detective Fletcher hid themselves behind a rack of women's dresses in the store. Detective William Rugenstein and Patrolman Archie Ball hid in the basement of the store. Detective Harry Erick and Arthur Fields were stationed in a room in the rear of the store.

Shortly after the store opened a coupe containing three men was seen to drive past the store. The driver stopped the car several hundred feet below the store. Two bandits emerged while the third one remained in the car.

One by one, very casually, the bandits strolled toward the store. The first bandit who walked into the store asked Hohlt for a pair of gloves. The bandit waited until his companions were in the store and then whipped out a gun. So did his companions.

"Stick 'em up!" the bandit ordered. Hohlt and James Whitson, Hohlt's brother-in-law,

"You stick 'em up yourself!" Lieutenant Pope yelled out at this moment jumping with drawn gun from his hiding place. Detective Fletcher also leaped out with drawn gun.

The bandits opened fire without hesitation. Only a few feet separated the combatants and they emptied their guns at each other in regular wild western fashion.

A bullet from a bandit gun struck Lieutenant Pope in the left hand and another bullet crashed into Detective Fletcher's right wrist, but the officers fought on. The other detectives in the store joined in the fight.

The bandit named Price was the first to fall. A moment later the other bandit, Kithrell, dropped dead.

Meanwhile as soon as the bandits were seen to enter the store Chief

BEWARE OF CHRISTMAS SEASON CONFLAGRATIONS

Fire prevention warnings for the holiday season should be observed. The following rules have been indorsed by the State Fire Marshal:
Avoid inflammable decorations of any kind. This applies to Christmas trees, banquet and dance halls, school rooms, etc.
Artificial snow makes a wonderful decoration—but be sure it is non-inflammable. The non-inflammable snow is no more expensive, and as easy to procure.
Under no circumstances permit the use of lighted candles on Christmas trees. Electric lighting fixtures may prevent a costly fire, saving lives and property.

Paper decorations are an invitation to fire. Never attach paper decorations to electric wires, fixtures or bulbs. A million dollars of automobiles were burned up in St. Louis about two years ago by doing this.
Do not use lighted candles in conjunction with inflammable decorations on the table.

Make sure that Santa Claus beard and costume are of fireproof materials; or tragedy may attend the party. Never use cotton batting for decorations of any kind. Use mineral wool, it is just as pretty, and is non-inflammable.

Neither use nor permit others to use a home motion picture machine with inflammable films. Your Christmas party may turn into a holocaust.
Smokers should throw away their cigar or cigarette when entering a store crowded with shoppers. One careless smoker may easily be the cause of a terrible tragedy.

It is well at this time to repeat the warning that furnaces are easily overheated; that kerosene and gasoline are a prolific source of danger to life and property; and that home dry-cleaning is likely to prove an expensive way to save money.

VONCASTLE

"Show People" Is Comedy Riot
She breaks in the movies and breaks up the audiences.
That, in brief, is what Marion Davies accomplishes in "Show People" which opens at the Voncastle Sunday for a two day showing.
Such a picture has never before come out of Hollywood. It is the movies gently and sometimes uproariously laughing at themselves.
Davis is magnificently funny.
The story is the romance of a girl who comes to the film city, enters pictures by the comedy route, becomes a dramatic star, nearly loses everything because her success goes to her head and is saved at last by the machinations of William Haines and by her own sense of humor. But that isn't the half of it.
It is Davies herself that gets the laughs. She is sorrowful, pathetic, mock tragic, but above all humorous. The episode where she enters the comedy studio for the first time had the audience standing on their seats and nearly on their heads with laughter. So did the wild climax where she at last learns to laugh at herself.
Haines as the slapstick comedian shares honors with Miss Davies and earns them.

GRANADA

Action, thrills, laughs will be plentiful in "Captain Swagger" coming to the Granada Sunday. Rod La Rocque, plays the part of Captain Swagger, who gets his name during the world war because of his genial braggadocio. Following the war this American ace returns to New York, penniless and decides the world owes him a living after having taken him from him and he starts out on a sea of crime. His first act is to hold up an automobile in which a rich man of the town is making violent love to a cabaret singer and who repulses him. And it is for the love of this charming girl that Captain Swagger renounces his intention and decides to go straight.
Harry Langdon Coming
In "Heart Trouble"
It remained for Harry Langdon to bring to the motion picture public a screen story which was created during the World War, in "Heart Trouble," his new First National picture coming to the Granada Theatre on Monday.
It is a war picture—it brings a war on the grouchy, right to their front doors, and they are mighty quick to surrender to the laughter and antics of Harry Langdon.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
SERVICES

"GOD THE ONLY CAUSE AND CREATOR" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 9.
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth. The glory of the Lord shall endure forever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works" (Ps. 104: 24, 30, 31).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).

17 FAMOUS PICTURE STARS APPEAR IN "SHOW PEOPLE"

You'll see "more stars than there are in heaven" when the Voncastle Theatre screens "Show People" Sunday-Monday co-starring Marion Davies and William Haines for the first time. All these famous film people played extra parts in this entertaining comedy film of movie life. It is an actual scene from the picture, these stars having volunteered their services out of friendship for Miss Davies. "Show People" pictures a girl's attempts to break into the movies—her start in "custard pie" comedies and her laughable efforts in the "heavy drama."

Worley and his squad of men in the police emergency car shot out of the Marmon plant and raced for the bandit car. Patrolman Cy Macey, driver of the police car shot the police car in the path of the bandit automobile, blocking it from moving. The men at the wheel of the bandit car took alarm and tried desperately to back away.

Sergeant James Hodges and Patrolman John Moorman leaped from the police machine and with drawn guns forced the men in the bandit car to shut off his motor and get out of the car. He was immediately handcuffed and placed in the police car which then raced toward the Hohlt store. The prisoner said his name was Lloyd Amos, and gave his address as 617 1/2 North Illinois Street.

Upon arriving at the store Chief Worley found Kithrell dead and Price dying. An ambulance rushed Price to the City Hospital where he died in a short time. Before he died Price gave police his real name and said that he had served a sentence in an Indiana penal institution.

The Hohlt Store was in shambles after the fight. Snowshoes and goods on display were bullet riddled and blood spattered. Large pools of blood were on the floor. Windows were smashed. Empty cartridge shells cluttered the floor.

"The shooting was going on before I realized it all," Hohlt said in describing his experiences during the gunfight. "I was waiting on one of the men when he suddenly drew a gun and told me to stick my hands up. Before I could raise my hands I heard somebody else say, 'you stick 'em up!' and then hell seemed to break loose. Several of the bullets whistled near me."

Chief Worley commended the marksmanship and bravery of his men.

"These men risked their lives and deserve public commendation," the chief said. "There is only one sure way to stop these holdups and that is to shoot it out with the bandits."

All the police officers who took part in the ambush wore bullet proof vests.

CHILD KILLED BY TRAIN

RIDGEVILLE, Ind., Dec. 7.—Martha Courtney, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Courtney of Ridgeville, was killed today when struck by a train on the Pennsylvania crossing. The girl was returning from school for the noon recess. A girl schoolmate, who ran on to the track with her, escaped being struck by the train.

Rose Poly fell hard. Bring on Fillmore!

Holding a college basketball team without a field goal until the game is almost over seems impossible. But that is what DePauw did against the "White Elephant" Engineers from Terre Haute last night.

Rose Poly couldn't make field goals but they sure were death on free throws. They missed but once out of ten attempts.

The Engineers used the old-type five-man defense which has been considered obsolete for the past ten years. It's ineffectiveness against the DePauw pivot plays was proven time and time again.

DePauw's short shots interspersed with an occasional long toss gave them a 24-6 lead at the half. With only six minutes remaining Hylton, Rose Poly forward, caged a field goal. He made another before the tilt ended 52-13 in favor of the Tigers.

In the second half DePauw used many reserve players and this probably accounted for the fact that the Engineers got a field goal. DePauw's players, clad in silken pants, excelled at the pivot play. Stone especially charging through for short shots. In the pivot play the ball is passed to a player close in and then another player charges through receiving the ball for a short shot.

Monday night the Tigers will get a stiffer test of ability when Earlham comes here for a game. This will be the last home game for the Methodists until after the holidays.

Tonight Greencastle and Fillmore tangle in the local high school gymnasium. Coach W. E. Bausman has revamped his squad during the past week and promises home fans a smooth-running Tiger Cub five.

A CURTAIN RAISER WILL BE PLAYED AT 7 O'CLOCK BETWEEN THE GREENCASTLE AND BROAD RIPLE OF INDIANAPOLIS JUNIOR SQUADS.

About 7,500 frenzied basketball fans saw Muncie dedicate her new gym last night with a victory over Anderson, 35-24. The Bearcats aided by Yohler and Wallace, staged a last-half spurt to overtake an Anderson lead of 14-12 at the half. The Anderson team fought gallantly to revenge the one-point defeat suffered at the hands of Muncie in the state tournament last spring, but without avail.

Athenian fans who selected Crawfordsville to defeat Bedford last night were disappointed for the Ivey-men administered a 59-37 defeat to the visiting Athenian five. Crawfordsville weakened in the last period after leading 20-19 at the half.

Jefferson high school of Lafayette dedicated a new gym last night by a lop-sided victory over Manual of Indianapolis. The Jefferson team won 44-15.

Martinsville defeated the Washington Hatchets, 53-29, on the Washington floor last night. The Artesian five plays at Greencastle next Friday night. Local school authorities are going to equip the Greencastle gym with elastic walls to care for the expected crowd.

Vincennes humbled Franklin last night, 36-34; Mitchell added another victory at the expense of Bloomington when it walloped the Panthers, 29-27; Newcastle beat Lebanon in another close one, 21-20; Connersville defeated Shelbyville, 34-31; French Lick added to its laurels by a 31-26 victory over Salem; Covington barely nosed out Attica, 20-19; and South Bend handed Nappanee its second defeat of the season, 32-19.

DEPAUW DEFEATS ROSE POLY BY 52 TO 13 SCORE

ENGINEERS FAIL TO GET FIELD GOAL UNTIL NEAR END OF SECOND HALF—TIGERS SHOW PLENTY OF RESERVE STRENGTH

By the one-sided score of 52 to 13 the DePauw basketball team defeated Rose Poly in the opening game of the season, played Friday night in the DePauw gym.

During the first half, which ended with the score 24 to 6, Rose Poly did not score a field goal. They scored the first point of the game on a free throw, but Stone's single and Mountz's double marker gave DePauw the lead. Two more free throws tied the score for Rose Poly, but Stunkel then caged a field goal to give DePauw a lead which they never lost.

The ball stayed in DePauw's possession most of the half, and three field goals each by Crawley and Stone, plus three more free throws by Stone, and two baskets by Ragsdale, put the game practically on ice at the half.

During the second period both sides substituted freely, but with the same result in scoring. Toward the end of the game Hylton, Rose Poly forward, was able to cage two shots from the field, but all the rest of the visitors' points came from the foul line.

Stone of DePauw ran wild at the start of the second half to score three successive baskets. He was easily high point man of both sides with 18, 7 field goals and 4 free throws. Crawley and Ragsdale followed with 8 each, and Costello scored 6 in about ten minutes of the second half.

But the floor work of Mountz and Crawley had much to do with the Tigers' scoring. For Rose Poly Hylton scored most from the field and the general work of Allen at center and Cooley at back guard excelled.

Coach Moffett showed plenty of reserve material, for 11 men saw action before the final gun with little change in the efficiency of the team. His opening lineup included three of last year's regulars, Crawley at floor guard, Mountz at center, and Stone, center last year, at forward. Lyons, a sophomore was the other forward, and Stunkel, who saw a little action last year, was back guard. Captain Loveless and Costello veteran forwards, were held back until the second half.
